

We are in a time of economic uncertainty. Young voters know that a reliable and affordable energy source is critical for a strong U.S. economy.

When asked about the most important issues facing the United States today, Gen Z and Millennial voters say it's the economy.

30%

of young voters say the economy is their top issue.

22%

of young voters say health care is their top issue.

14%

of young voters say the environment is their top issue.

of young voters say the natural gas industry is a critical part of the American economy.

Young voters agree that natural gas as an energy source is affordable, reliable and accessible.

61%

of young voters agree natural gas is an affordable energy source.

67%

of young voters agree natural gas is a reliable energy source.

68%

of young voters agree natural gas is an accessible energy source.

The benefits natural gas provides in saving Americans money and improving the environment resonate with young voters.

73% are more favorable towards natural gas when hearing about the hundreds of dollars a year it can save families.

71% are more favorable towards natural gas when hearing about the $121 billion saved annually in the U.S. by all Americans due to the use of natural gas.

72% are more favorable towards natural gas when hearing about the contribution of natural gas towards lower greenhouse gas emissions.

56%

of Gen Z and Millennial voters agree that America's plan to address climate change must include an energy solution that is affordable.

Gen Z and Millennial voters agree that the continued use of natural gas as a primary energy source benefits the U.S. economy.

56%

of young voters say the continued use of natural gas supports a strong American workforce.

54%

of young voters say the continued use of natural gas supports a strong overall economy.

Learn more about the importance of natural gas to our communities.

CLICK HERE