The Powerful Word of the Month is leadership. Just as John Maxwell once said; "a leader knows the way, goes the way and shows the way!" But leader might now always "know the way" until they think through a problem. They might use a strategy to come up with the best choice possible. They might use "pros and cons" and weigh out "what's good" and "what's bad" about a choice (i.e. If I join the team- Pro: "I get to work with my favorite coach vs Con: I won't have much downtime). They might put the choice to a vote & ask those you trust to weigh in (i.e. how many say "yes" vs "no"). They might ask themselves "what if" questions to think through what would happen if they make a specific choice (i.e. What if I join the team? What if I don't?). Below, practice each of these strategies with a choice you are making. It can be to try out for a team, reconnect with friends, start an exercise regimen, adopt a pet, try a new food- anything!

Problem/choice I am thinking through:
	PROS & CONS			What IF?		Vote!
	PROS	CONS		"What ifs" to ask myself: "1)		Who I asked	Their vote
